

Further update on trading between the EU and Canada

Customs Information Paper 19 (2017)
Who should read:	Anyone exporting to or importing from Canada
What is it about:	Update on implementation of preferential origin provisions of CETA (Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement) between the EU and Canada.
When effective:	18 September 2017
Extant until/ Expires	Until further notice

1. Introduction

This Customs Information Paper (CIP) supplements CIP10 \(2017\) concerning the EU and Canada Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (CETA).

2. Background

CIP 10(2017) informed you of CETA specifically the details on preferential origin and links to the text of the agreement. It was followed by CIP11 \(2017\) confirming CETA was not implemented on 1 July as originally intended.

3. Update

The European Commission have published Official Journal L238/9 confirming CETA is to be provisionally implemented from 21 September 2017. From this date provided all of the required conditions are met the preferential rates may be claimed for qualifying goods exported from the EU to Canada or vice versa.

For tariff rates please check the EU TARIC or the UK Online Trade Tariff.

4. Contacts

Any questions regarding the implementation of this agreement should be emailed to:

dutyliability.policy@hmrc.gsi.gov.uk

HMRC is changing how information is issued to customers. Sign up to receive digital alerts.

Your Charter explains what you can expect from us and what we expect from you.
For more information go to: Your Charter